

David Colley
Palmersville
North Tyneside

Hello,

thank you for your interest in working as a personal assistant to enable me in my independent living. Enclosed are the vacancy details. They should give you an idea of the nature of the work of a personal assistant, and the type of service I am looking for. The current rate of pay is £9.25 per hour.

I have vacancies for 2 shifts: all day for roughly 15 hours each for 2 days per week.

Enclosed is an application form and information about the work.

I am not particularly looking for applicants with previous experience, given that the role is tailored specifically to my own needs. I need to stress this role is not like a domiciliary care worker, it is broader and more varied. So please bear that in mind when completing the application form.

If I ask you to interview, please think carefully about any questions you have about the job.

Please return these forms as soon as possible by email to Disability North using the email and reference from the advertisement.

Yours sincerely,

David
